Alma Mater

*On a city's southern border
Reared against the sky,
Proudly stands our Alma Mater
As the years roll by.*

Chorus:

*Forward ever be our watchword,
Conquer and prevail.
Hail to the our Alma Mater
Ardmore High — all hail!*

*High school days are swiftly passing
Soon our race is run.
While we live we'll ever cherish
Friendship here begun.*

*Fare-the-well old Ardmore High School
Never more again,
A class more faithful to their high school
Than this loyal band.*

In Loving Memory Of
Jack Todd Magnusson
April 8, 1963 — October 8, 1979

*The sun will set; each season will pass;
The rainbow will fade away;
Weeds will cover the once traveled paths;
Mountains will crumble one day.
The essence, a memory, a remnant sometimes;
Remains through the ruins of time;
As a message, a history for others to know;
What yesterday left behind.
But no matter how tight our clutch may be;
All things will pass away;
But for now we look back on those who have gone;
And we still remember today.*

MIXED EMOTIONS

Our senior year has approached us.
The days are flying fast.
This is our goal of the past twelve years,
And now we want it to last.

As we look back over our years,
At good 'ole Ardmore High,
We reminisce our good time,
And shudder to say goodbye.

We have walked the path together
Throughout our high school years.
Loyal friends we have been,
Through struggles, trials, and tears.

Football games, pep rallies, the senior prom,
Homecoming, dating, and fussing with your Mom.
Getting the car from Dad,
Keeping up with the latest fad.

Laughing in the halls, cutting classes when we could,
Griping about tests, not doing what we should.
Strutting down the halls, thinking we are really great!
Never on time for any classes, always, always late!

Getting our class rings was quite a thrill!
Senior portraits and invitations were special too.
All these events happen only once,
And our once is almost through.

Our growing pains we have shared,
As maturity we did seek.
Our adolescence is now fading,
As our maturity reaches its peek.

Mixed emotions have lingered in our minds,
As to where we are all bound.
We seek our new identities,
That as of yet we have not found.

Will we reach the goals we have been striving for?
Or will our roads carry us only to dead ends?
Whatever we do, be it good or bad,
We will always remain loyal friends.

As the close of the year draws nigh,
Graduation approaches us fast.
We realize that our life of the past twelve years,
Is now a part of our past.

As we are thrust into reality,
To prove ourselves to our peers.
We have to strive for only the best,
And push aside our fears.

As our final goodbyes have to be said,
There is sadness in the air.
It is hard to leave behind our memories and friends,
Without showing how much we care.

Graduation is finally here.
To our carefree days it is goodbye!
Ardmore will be a part of our souls,
Until the day that we die!

On to new beginnings,
After we have shed our tears with our friends.
We will make our future the best it can be.
But never again will it be like it has been.

Homecoming is a very special event for both the students and the alumni of A.H.S. Homecoming week is filled with exciting activities for the students as they participate in the '50's day, parades, and a rousing pep rally. This event also gives the alumni an opportunity to renew old acquaintances and reminisce the "good ole days". The evening of Homecoming reaches its peak when the Homecoming Queen is crowned; and then everyone is off to the joyous Homecoming sock-hop.

Won 13 — Lost 4

"Sometimes I get the feeling that everyone is out to get me!"

"Meet Bones, our super hunk."

"What you talkin' 'bout, Davis?"

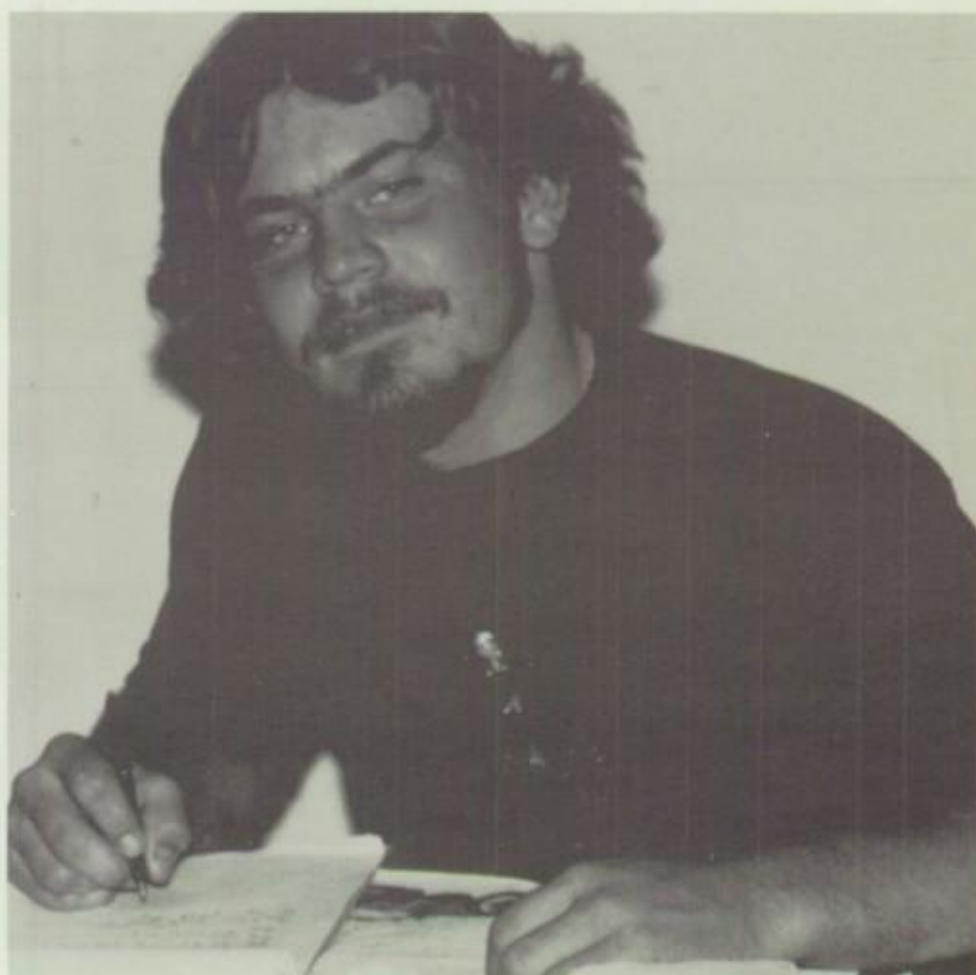

"I didn't squeeze the Charmin!"

"Did you say GREEN?"

"Help, I'm having
